Dear Mamma

I will try to write a little now be for I go out with the cows this morning Uncle Charle went to town troupe last Wensday and he bought me a sout of southe he gave them to me for a birthday present It cost five dollers I do not now what school will begin yet has school began down there yet have they husked all the corn yet gave you hauled all the pumpkins yet we have hauled a few all ready we got to load all to feather our Uncle Charle is going back soon to day

When Uncle Charles comes down next you must send my sled and skates along I sent some candy and three apples along with Uncle Charles. Misses Olsen gave me twenty five cents and Mr Olsen told me to buy a pair of shoes for it and when I came back he asked me if I got a pair of shoes. I told him no and then he asked me what I bought for it. I told him apples and candy. When I read and got 20 cents. Charles was reading all the time and I carried the bundles to him and paid the store man. I can't think of to write so good by Albert Erwin
write soon.
